Jason E. Weeks is a Director in the firm's Mississippi office, with a practice focused on Commercial Litigation which centers on the needs of clients in the areas of Construction, Real Estate and Business Services.

Jason represents clients throughout the construction industry, including owners, general contractors, architects, engineers, subcontractors and suppliers, in state and federal courts and before American Arbitration Association arbitrators. He also has experience representing clients in matters involving complex commercial disputes, professional liability and insurance coverage issues.

In addition to representing clients when disputes arise, Jason is often called upon to assist with drafting, negotiation, and actual performance of contracts. He has been a speaker at various trade organization meetings, including the Associated Builders and Contractors of Mississippi, the Jackson Homebuilders' Association, the Mississippi chapter of the American Subcontractors Association, and the Structural Engineers Association of Mississippi.
